

Patient Recall

1992

1. Prophylactic intervention is well established in health management. In this regard, general practitioners are encouraged to provide recall or reminder services for their patients, who should be encouraged to participate in such services.
2. Specialists should not initiate recall or reminder services without the express cooperation of each patient's general practitioner.

Note: The above position Statement is subject to compliance with Privacy Legislation

Reproduction and distribution of AMA position statements is permitted provided the AMA is acknowledged and that the position statement is faithfully reproduced noting the year at the top of the document.