

President and CEO Update

Over the last month we have supported the COVID-19 vaccination mandate for public health workers, continued our work to tackle emergency department wait times and launched our new workplace relations and human resources consultancy for private practices. Read our October update to learn more about our extensive work and advocacy for the medical profession in Queensland.

Mandatory vaccines needed

We support the mandatory vaccination of public health care workers but want this extended to also include the private sector. Read more

COVID booster welcome

The COVID-19 booster is welcome but many Queenslanders still need to get their first two jabs before the borders open. Read more
