Here's a magical member-only offer for your consideration... you'll get two bottles of each of these six beauties. Mitchell Peppertree Shiraz is arguably one of Australia's most reliable Shiraz drinking at its very best. There's Curtis Limited Series Shiraz from the Vale, with a slew of 96 point reviews. Karl's Scepter (made by ex-Penfolds winemaker Oliver Crawford) is packed with intense fruits, coffee, graphite, chocolate, minerals, licorice, and spice. Yaldara's glorious super premium Cab Shiraz is worth $200 a bottle and offers exceptional long-term cellaring. Domaine Masse is another wonderful entry level Burgundy from a multi generational producer dating back to the 1600s. Next up, old vine glory from Metala, a very special bottling made primarily from the original 1891 plantings.

$992 worth of premium red for $250 ($20.83/bottle!)
