

PRIVATE PRACTICE WORKSHOP: BULLYING in the WORKPLACE

The AMA (ACT)'s Tony Chase (Manager of Workplace Relations and General Practice) and Christine Neou (Workplace Relations Advisor) will be speaking at this event and addressing concerns of particular interest to medical practices in the ACT.

AMA (ACT) LIMITED TONY CHASE joined the AMA (ACT) in 2016 and is an experienced workplace relations practitioner and has worked across both the private and public sectors. He has appeared in most Australian Industrial Tribunals representing small and medium businesses and has also worked as a workplace mediator and investigator for the Commonwealth Government.

Tony will provide a comprehensive presentation on the following topics:

- Workers Compensation
- ACT Case Studies
- Conducting Investigations

AMA (ACT) LIMITED CHRISTINE NEOU joined the AMA (ACT) in May 2018. She has qualifications from the University of Canberra in Human Resources and Law, with a specific focus on Employment Law issues. In 2018, she was awarded the top performing student prize for Employment Discrimination and the Law. Christine was a secondary teacher for four years, working closely with students and colleagues in order to understand, detect and eradicate bullying occurrences.

Christine will complement the comprehensive presentation with the following topics:

- Bullying Behaviours
- Costs of Bullying
- Legal Requirements

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Practice principals, practice managers and other practice staff

WHEN: 12-1:30pm Tuesday 14 August 2018

WHERE: AMA House - 42 Macquarie Street, BARTON ACT

COST: $100 for AMA members and/or their practice staff

$200 for non-members and/or their practice staff

CONTACT: Karen Fraser at reception@ama-act.com.au

Or call our office on 6270 5410

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY:

