Tasmanian Health Conference

29 JULY 2017 Medical Sciences Precinct, University of Tasmania, HOBART

YOU'RE INVITED

TO THE LAUNCH OF THE ANZ - MELBOURNE INSTITUTE HEALTH TRENDS REPORT

In collaboration with Melbourne University's Melbourne Institute we are delighted to invite you to an exclusive event to celebrate the launch of the ANZ-Melbourne Institute Health Trends Report.

Please join us for drinks and canapés across the state. Your hosts Chris Sparks, Regional Executive Regional Business Banking Tasmania, and Cindy Arthur, Head of Health for Regional Business Banking will explore key trends in the health sector.

Amongst the trends surveyed are changes in the size and composition of the medical workforce, the financial health of GP practices, bulk-billing, and work-life balance. This will be followed by a panel discussion reflecting on key themes from the report and trends facing the industry.

DATES Tuesday 30th May, Wednesday 31st May and Thursday 1st June 2017

TIME 6.00 pm networking event for a 7.00 pm formal presentation and panel discussion

VENUE Hobart, Launceston and Burnie

DRESS Business Casual

RSVP Wednesday 24th May to ANZ at Kate.Bonner@anz.com

Please advise us if you have any dietary requirements when you RSVP. We look forward to seeing you at the launch of ANZ-Melbourne Institute Health Trends Report.

The Challenges of Balancing Medical Workforce Supply and Distribution

Thursday 25 May 2017 in Melbourne

REAL ESTATE

COMMERCIAL VERSUS RESIDENTIAL

When considering options for property investment, residential real estate is often thought to be the safest and most profitable option, with commercial property given little thought as a viable investment solution. Many investors feel more comfortable with residential investments as it is familiar to them – most people can relate to renting or buying a house at some stage of their life.
